Description

The Oonagh Sterling Silver Celtic Pendant - Oonagh was an ancient Celtic Goddess who was also queen of fairyland. It was said of her that her beauty was so great that no mortal could look upon her, without being overcome with amazement. It was told that she was accompanied everywhere by streams of sunbeams and moonbeams and lovely flashing of rainbow lights emanating from the jewels she wore about her ears and neck. These exquisite Celtic love knots are a radiant illustration of these ancient magical jewels.
